

Bryan Boyd
Ocean Blue Yacht Sales
Owner

Born in Louisville, Kentucky, Bryan Boyd grew up boating on the lakes and rivers of the Midwest. His family started boating in the 60's and owned numerous boats throughout his childhood. Bryan started his career in the boating business in the early 80's as a salesperson at one of the Midwest's oldest dealerships. Since then he has moved steadily through the ranks to become a well respected member of the marine industry.

In 2000 he moved to Florida to manage several large marine facilities for one of the world's largest marine dealers. Bryan most recently was the regional sales manager for Pursuit Boats. It is during this time that he developed his knowledge and passion for this world renowned brand. This passion has now driven him to open his own Pursuit dealership with his partner in Stuart, FL—Ocean Blue Yacht Sales. He now combines his wealth of boating knowledge, high level of customer satisfaction, strong management skills and excellent reputation to offer you a unique and personal buying or selling experience.
